

Women's Federation for World Peace USA
21st Anniversary National Assembly
“LEARN to LEAD”

WFWP

Washington, DC Metro Area
October 24 & 26, 2013

Learn to Lead through Service

WFP USA Day of Service

Washington, DC

October 24, 2013

Day of Service, October 24, 2013, Washington, DC.

Mrs. Fannie Smith, WFWP Board member, Emcee for the morning program.

Students gathering at 4th Precinct Police Station in Washington, DC.

Thirty students joined the Day of Service from New Hope Academy, Landover Hills, MD.

Juanita Pierre-Louis, Vice-President of WFP USA, Day of Service Project Coordinator.

Speaking to students: Pres. Angelika Selle, Bob Selle and Juanita Pierre Louis.

4th Precinct Police Chief addressing the audience of over 70 people.

Rev. Dr. John Davies, 92 yrs. old, Korean War veteran, who stood up for Father Moon when in Danbury prison.

Students and teachers – listening to guidance on leadership.

Everyone paid attention to all speakers.

Minister Chi Mauuso, member of ACLC, WFPW and a community activist, also co-organized the event.

Ken Holman, representative of the Mayor of Washington, DC, addressing group.

Ken Holman presenting the Mayor's Proclamation and letter to Pres. Selle.

BER 24TH & 26TH, 2013

LEARN TO

anniversary

N

October 24 was declared a DAY OF SERVICE in Washington, DC, inspired by this event.

Nandi Moton, WFWP member, activist, and educator passionately addressing the young people.

Young student participant asking a question.

Brendon Todd reads Proclamation from Washington DC's Congressman's office.

Fannie Smith, Ken Holman, Angelika Selle, Juanita Pierre Louis

Rev. Davis receiving an Ambassador for Peace appointment signed by True Mother.

Rev. Davis sharing his deep testimony on leadership.

Mrs. Emelyn Besem receives AFP appointment and poses with her team.

Emelyn Besem inspired by the event sang a song about Women and Peace.

Pastor Zagery Oliver, Washington, DC Family Church, addressing the young people.

Students representing four schools posing with speakers and government officials.

Inspired young girls getting ready for cleaning.

Girls from different schools getting to know each other.

Cleaning windows on Georgia Avenue in Washington, DC.

Mrs. Fujiko Paul and the Selles cleaning the sidewalk in DC.

Serving others as a foundation for leadership – future leaders.

Mrs. Friederun Abrahams, from Tennessee, and young women working together.

Many store owners are inspired and amazed.

Mrs. Beverly Berndt (far left), teacher at New Hope Academy, brought 29 students for a field trip to the Day of Service. Job well done, and it was a lot of fun.

Surrounding store owners donated pizza, drinks and burgers.

LEARN TO LEAD

Raising the Next Generation of Women Leaders

Saturday, October 26, 2013

University of Maryland, College Park, MD

Mrs. Lena Yasutake, WFWP Board member, did an excellent job as Mistress of Ceremonies for the entire day.

4TH & 26TH, 2013

LEARN TO LEAD

21st Anniversary

National Assembly

Mrs. Jackie Phillips, Former Federal Co-Chair, ARC, giving Congratulatory Remarks.

Mrs. Fumiko Balcomb reading the Welcoming Remarks from Dr. Lan Young Moon.

Mrs. Fumiko Balcomb addressing the audience in the Colony Ballroom, Univ. of Maryland, College Park.

26TH, 2013

LEARN TO LEA

21st Anniversary

National Assembly

Pres. Angelika Selle welcoming the audience and explaining: "Why are We Here?"

21st Anniversary

Nat

WFWP Vice President Juanita Pierre-Louis reporting on the Day of Service of October 24.

2nd National Global Women's Peace Network (GWPN) panel discussion.

GWPN panelist, Leicester Johnson, educational entrepreneur, speaks on “Leading from the Heart”.

Nia Lyte, talk show host speaks on: “ Lady Justice - Balance, Peace, Ethics and Values as a Leader”. Her new book: The Power of Inner Beauty, was launched at the assembly.

Ms Katherine Duncan, Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce, speaks on “Spirituality and Leadership”.

WOMEN'S FEDERATION FOR WORLD PEACE USA

BER 24TH & 26TH, 2013

LEARN TO LEAD

21st Anniversary

National Assembly

WEWP USA

Jennifer Jean, writer and poet, speaking on "Overcoming Personal Barriers and Building Confidence".

Panelists fielding questions from the audience.

150 participants attended the GWPN panel discussion. Q&A session lasted over one hour.

OCTOBER 24TH & 26TH, 2013

GWPN Panelists posing with WFWP USA president.

AFTERNOON BREAKOUT SESSIONS

Linda Clark, beauty consultant: "Beauty from the Inside Out – Makeover Session"

Fannie Smith, WFWP Board member: “Your Journey to Leadership – Follow the Signs”

Nandi Moton, WFWP educator: “Purity is Power”

Mary Holden: "Clean Slate, Relationship Intelligence"

Hilde Reinold, family therapist: “Family is the School for Leadership”.

Bishop Ebony Kirkland: "Make it Your Business to be in Business."

Evening Banquet “Honor & Celebrate”

Beloved Continental Director, Dr. Ki Hoon Kim, addresses 220 evening banquet guests.

Introducing the Bridge of Peace: Living by the Logic of Love based Rev. Moon's legacy.

Nandi Moton, Officiator for Bridge of Peace, “Healing the Wounds of America”.

21st Anniversary

National Asser

Crossing the aisle, crossing the Bridge - Reconciling Republicans and Democrats.

Fran Roschuni (Tea party/Republican) embracing Georgia State Rep. Sheila Jones, (Democrat).

Women overcoming party lines to heal America.

Kim Dadachanji, on behalf of white people, repents for terrible wrongs done to black people in America.

Katherine Duncan speaks words of forgiveness on behalf of those with African American descent in the US.

New sisters – new beginnings – healing took place.

Claire Daugherty explaining the painful history between Native Americans and white people with the women from the Trail of Tears Sacred Prayer Journey in June 2013

Brenda Miller representing white people repents and asks for forgiveness to Dottie Chicquelo, a Cherokee.

Dottie Chicquelo recounts the tragic history of her people and says, "I accept your apology."

Warm and heartfelt embrace on the Bridge – audience felt the historicity of this moment.

Dottie and Brenda as true sisters.

The Heavenly Drummers create a powerful atmosphere after the Bridge of Peace.

Focusing and meditating as they perform in unity.

All are proud of the group spanning the ages from 11-20.

21st Anniversary

National Assembly

The audience gives standing ovation!!!

The "Heavenly Drummers" team won the Grand Prize at the Asian Festival in Korea.

Dr. Aziz Baccauche, blind since the age of 8, receives HerStory Award 2013.

Dr. Aziz overcame incredible obstacles in life and now impacts thousands with her message, "You don't need vision to have a vision."

Dance group from Punjab, India, bringing energy of joy and balance to the evening.

Young women leaders receive the Ambassadors for Peace appointment.

OCTOBER 24TH & 26TH, 2013

LEA

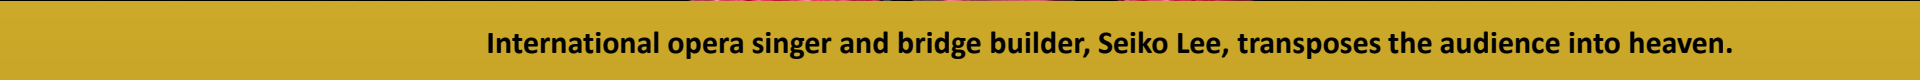

AFP appointment for the women who traveled the Trail of Tears and planted a new beginning for America.

WFWP chairwomen and representatives also receive AFP appointment.

International opera singer and bridge builder, Seiko Lee, transposes the audience into heaven.

OCTOBER 24TH & 26TH, 2013

LEARN TO LEAD

21st Anniversary

National Assembly

Leadership through song and True Love.

WFWP USA President and Vice President pose with speakers, performers, women leaders.

Learn to Lead

Vision 2020 Workshop

For Haitian Women Leaders
by Angelika Selle

October 28-30, 2013
College Park, Maryland

Mrs. Fujiko Paul, WFWP leader in Haiti and Mrs. Gerthy Lamarre with Mrs. Angelika Selle.

Dr. Ki Hoon Kim invited the Haitian delegation to breakfast before leadership workshop:
Evelyn Drake, AB Kim, Angelika Selle, Fannie Smith, Gerthy Lamarre, and Fujiko Paul.

Vision 2020 workshop and leadership training for Haitian sisters at MD CARP center.

Deep sharing among the team.

Visit at The Washington Times Founder's Room with WFWP Haitian women leaders.

Fujiko Paul with Angelika Selle visiting the Beech Room at The Washington Times.

Thank you to all who contributed to the Victory of the 21st Anniversary National Assembly!

The WFWP Board of Directors,

all Chairwomen and members,

WFWP Staff and . . .

our precious volunteers!

